

I am very much against weaking the Indiana "Do Not Call" law. I feel that if I want to talk to somebody, I should have the right to select who, when, where, and for how long.